

Assisted Living Benefits of Working with Hospice

Check the three that are most important to you

- Maximize Occupancy by supporting Aging in Place
We help your residents age in place by providing end-of-life care in their place of residence
- Reduced Suffering
We help with pain & symptom management to reduce suffering
- Avoid Hospitalizations
We work closely with the Assisted Living care team to prevent re-hospitalizations
- Coordinated Care
We partner with you by coordinating resident care with your staff
- Dedicated Team
We provide your residents with an RN Case Manager, Hospice Aide, Social Worker, Chaplain and Volunteers
- Extension of your Team
We identify ourselves to all staff by wearing name tags and checking in with the Supervisor on every visit as we enter and exit your community
- Continuity of Care
We provide continuity of care with consistent clinical staffing
- Documentation
We leave documentation at the end of every visit
- Resident Communication
We are available to meet with resident and family members as needed or at scheduled resident care conferences
- Staff Communication
We notify you of the need for a change in the Hospice Plan of Care
- Around the Clock Availability
We have staff available 24/7
- Clear Communication
We keep families informed of any changes or updates with phone calls after visits
- Medication and Supply Management
We order and manage medications, supplies and equipment to provide patient's comfort
- Integrated Care
We integrate your Plan of Care with the Kindful Hospice Plan of Care
- Volunteers
We provide volunteers to visit your residents to cheer and help through long days
- Therapy Support
We offer a wide range of complementary therapies to add to the comfort of the patient and their families
- Bedside Care
We provide bedside care during all periods of crisis and are always vigilant and attentive to families and their loved ones when death is imminent
- Funeral Planning
We assist the family with funeral planning
- Death Pronouncement/Management
We pronounce all deaths
