

Revolutionary Bereavement

No one should grieve alone and with the Christi Center's Virtual Grief Groups, no one has to.

Kindful Health, in partnership with the Christi Center, a leading foundation in the area of grief and loss support, is proud to announce a revolutionary approach to bereavement with the launch of Virtual Grief Groups. Now anyone who has suffered loss has a home.

With professionally led groups specific to a person's type of loss and situation in life, the bereaved have a safe place to share their sorrow while being embraced by the support of others who are experiencing similar feelings.
